COMFORTSTONE™ | ENGINEERED STONE FLOORING

More Comfortable to Live on and Live with Experience the beauty of natural stone-like flooring with enhanced comfort and durability. Comfortstone™ features the look of stone, slate, concrete and alternative visuals ideal for any room of the home. Versus traditional stone, this flooring is softer and warmer to the touch, and is much easier on your feet and anything you may drop on it. Easy-to-maintain and crafted to handle a lifetime of everyday household use, Comfortstone™ is an excellent alternative to natural stone flooring.

- Variety of natural stone-like visuals crafted for mass appeal
- Engineered tile structure provides a warm, comfortable surface that is more forgiving to everyday household wear
- Waterproof tiles feature an easy-to-clean surface which repels stains
- Acrylic grout requires no sealing and resists stains and cracks
- Multiple installation options are suitable for any level of the home
