TREESCAPE™ | ENGINEERED HARDWOOD

Traditional Looks. Lasting Beauty.

Authentic wood planks with a delicately wire-brushed surface are available in a color palette agreeable with any style. Treescape™ is engineered to resist dents and is less prone to splitting – even in challenging environments.

- Curated collection of colors to complement any style
- Sliced-faced hardwood planks
- Less prone to splitting and checking in challenging environments
- Engineered to resist dents & scratches, while a wire-brushed surface hides the wear of daily life
- Budget-friendly option for a performance hardwood
